ANNOUNCEMENT

THE ACADEMY OF ACCOUNTING HISTORIANS 1993 VANGERMEERSCH MANUSCRIPT AWARD

The Academy of Accounting Historians has established an annual manuscript award to encourage young academic scholars to pursue historical research. Any historical manuscript on any aspect of the field of accounting, broadly defined, is appropriate for submission.

ELIGIBILITY AND GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS

Any accounting faculty member, who received his/her doctorate within seven years, is eligible for this award. Manuscripts must conform to the style and length requirements of the Accounting Historians Journal. Manuscripts must be the work of one author and previously published manuscripts or manuscripts under review are not eligible for consideration.

Six copies of each manuscript should be submitted by June 15, 1993 to the Chair of the Vangermeersch Manuscript Award Committee:

Professor Maureen Berry
University of Illinois
296 Commerce West
1206 South Sixth Street
Champaign, IL 61820 USA

A cover letter, indicating the author's mailing address, date doctoral degree awarded, and a statement that the manuscript has not been published or is not being currently considered should be included in the submission packet.

REVIEW PROCESS AND AWARD

In addition to the Chair, the Vangermeersch Manuscript Award Committee includes the following members:

Professors:

Dale L. Flesher	The University of Mississippi
O. Finley Graves	The University of Mississippi
Barbara D. Merino	University of North Texas
Mary S. Stone	University of Alabama

The committee will evaluate submitted manuscripts on a blind review basis and select one recipient each year. The author will receive a $500 stipend and a certificate to recognize his/her outstanding achievement in historical research. The manuscript will be published in the Accounting Historians Journal after any revisions deemed necessary by the manuscript editor of the Journal. The award will be given annually unless the manuscript award committee determines that no submission has been received that warrants recognition as an outstanding manuscript.
